LEWIS J. LIMAN, United States District Judge:

As requested by Defendant, the Court has conducted an in-camera review of the post-verdict letter handed by one of the jurors to be delivered to Plaintiff. Dkt. No. 71.

The Court finds that the letter does not show that there was "extraneous prejudicial information was improperly brought to the jury's attention," that "an outside influence was improperly brought to bear on any juror," that there was a "mistake was made in entering the verdict on the verdict form," or that there was any other "exception to juror testimony as provided under F.R.E. 606(b)(2)." Id. The Court will separately file a a sealed version of the letter on the Court's docket only viewable by the Court. The Court will provide the original of the letter to counsel for Plaintiff for counsel to provide directly to his client.

SO ORDERED.
